umpant, a Tale of Easteride, will be rendered.
Owing to the uncertainty of repairs being completed in the First Baptist church edifice, no special musical service has been arranged.

At the Broad street Christian church there will be special musical services afternoon and evening. The programme for the morning is as follows: Voluntary prelude, Best; Sapientia, The Lord's Prayer, Gloria; responsive reading; scripture, The Risen Christ; hymn; prayer; offertory, Intermezzo, Poote; cantata, Life and Death, Shelly; sermon, A Risen Christ, a Risen Life; reception of members; communion; hymn; benediction; doxology; postlude. Whiting. The afternoon programme is as follows: Organ and piano, Kantzenow; Ostrow; Rubenstein; hymn; scripture; solo, The Resurrection, Shelly; Miss Jessie Capron; prayer; solo, Hosanna, Grider; William S. Martin; offertory, Pastoral, Guilmant; cantata, The New Life; postlude, anon.

The members of Narragansett commandery, Knights Templar, will attend the evening service in Grace Methodist church. The following programme for the morning: Prelude, Poco Adagio, Henry Smart; anthem, Hallelujah, Christ is Risen, C. Simpson; hymn, Hosanna; offertory, Intermezzo, Christ Our Passover, A. Chapell; readings from Psalter, Gloria Pasca; scripture reading; prayer; and solo, All Hail to the New Risen Lord, J. B. Marsh, Mrs. George W. Budd; hymn; sermon; hymn; postlude, Hallelujah, J. Lemmon. In the evening the exercises will be as follows: Postlude, The Evening Star, Wagner; prelude, The Lord is in His Holy Temple, Leitch; Keep Silence Before Him; commandery seated; anthem, Christ Our Passover; responsive readings and Lord's prayer; Coronation Hymn; prelude, reading First Lesson; anthem, All the Ends of the World; prelude, reading Second Lesson; prayer; Gloria; the Apostles' Creed; cantata, The Wonderful Story.

At the Seventh-day Baptist church today (Saturday) the order of service will be as follows: Organ voluntary; opening sentence; Lord's prayer; doxology; psalm; Gloria; scripture lesson; violin; Choeur; Miss Mason; offertory; sermon; cantata, The Resurrection, by Alonzo Smith.

Organization has been completed of the Rhode Island branch of the New England corn exposition to be held in Worcester in November by the election of Philip A. Mowbray, president, L. L. Sherman, vice president, and John J. Dunn of Westerly, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee with each county in the state represented was appointed as follows: John J. Dunn for Providence county, Philip A. Mowbray for Washington county, L. L. Sherman for Newport county, William Williams for Bristol county, Thomas G. Matthews for Kent county, Frank E. Wheeler and G. E. Adams of Kingston and John J. Dunn of Westerly and the Rhode Island officers in the exposition.

The corn exposition is to offer over $5,000 in prizes to exhibitors, and lectures on corn raising and corn improvement in general will be given each day, and there will be a cooking school in operation for demonstration purposes.

Leaded windows have been placed in the vestry doors of the First Baptist church as a part of the general improvement of the edifice. In the center of one of the windows in stained glass are the words "First Baptist. Welcome" in the other window "Church Organized 1835." This church is planning for observance of the seventy-fifth anniversary of organization on an elaborate scale and the house of worship is gradually being improved in preparation for the important event in the history of the church.

An action at law was entered by Allura J. Crandall of Norwich in the Third district court, Westerly, Friday by her attorney, Nathan B. Lewis, against John J. Lawless of New London, to recover on a promissory note for $140. Service was commenced by the attachment of real estate. The action was unanswered and continued for two weeks.

Salvatore Salameno brings suit to recover $500 for damages for injuries received in a vehicular collision in Elm Street last week between Frank W. Coy. In this accident both plaintiff and defendant were seriously injured. Continued for two weeks.

Howard Percival Pasco did not survive a surgical operation in the Whitmarsh hospital, Providence, Thursday, and the remains were brought to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pasco, in Westerly. He was 20 years of age and an apprentice in the Atwood & Morrison machine shop in Stonington, and was a general favorite. He has been a member of the Congregational church forty years and took active interest in the Christian Endeavor society. He leaves his parents, two sisters and two brothers.

Charles Dutton, or rather the young man who gives that name to the police, and who was arrested Thursday by Chief Bransfield four days after being in almost continuous "sweet" work for twenty-four hours, positively refused to disclose his identity. His claims to be deaf and dumb, and if he is not, he plays well the part. Since taken into custody he has written numerous lies concerning his past history which were proven by telephonic communication with Providence, Pittsfield, Mass., and Portland, Me. He finally acknowledged that he had been lying and gave as a cause that he did not propose to incriminate himself nor was he going to drag friends into the case to share his apparent disgrace and preferred to bear his troubles alone. He insists that he really is deaf and dumb as the result of an attack of typhoid fever last November and that he should not be persecuted for that misfortune. In spite of his statements, and a belief based on thorough examination Chief Bransfield is of opinion that Dutton is a professional fakir and this opinion is shared by the police authorities of Pittsfield, where he was recently arrested for a like offense, and is now out on a cash bond of $15 for his appearance in the superior court. Friday evening Dutton was arraigned in the Third district court, Judge Oliver H. Williams, on the charge of begging.

Miss Bessie Crandall underwent an operation in the Rhode Island hospital Friday for appendicitis.

Good Friday is not a legal holiday in Rhode Island and business went along just the same as on any other day.
Representative Albert H. Langworthy of Westerly is a member of the house corporation committee in charge of the Grand Trunk railroad charter legislation.

Miss Margaret Clark Fraser of Westerly and Frederick E. Manchester of Providence were married Thursday in Providence.

Col. Albert N. Crandall has returned from Colorado, where he went to visit his son Milton, who was seriously ill with typhoid fever.

Harmony of Dress.
A beautiful woman also studies the harmony of painting a well kept home; takes care to have the house painted with neat and durable surfaces of the system. Bright clean and fresh looking. The L. & M. never becomes dingy, because only chemically pure colors are used; only the finest White Oxide made from metal; only the finest White Lead; only the purest Linseed Oil; only the best paint-makers produce it with machinery—a thousand gallons at a time. Contrast this with the costly and crude production of White Lead Paint made by hand in a small pot—a few gallons at a time. L. & M. is sold by L. W. Carroll & Son, Norwich; J. P. Kingley & Son, Plainfield.

A Timely Protection.
Everyone knows the after effects of La Grippe are often more dangerous than the disease. So often it leads to pneumonia, which a weakened heart action makes fatal. La Grippe coughs that strain and weaken the system yield quickly to the healing and strengthening qualities of Foley's Kidney and Urinary Tract. The Lee & Osgood Co.
